

P.O. Box 1650
Little Rock, AR 72203-1650

Authorization to Disclose, Obtain and Use Personal Information

In signing below, I represent the statements I may have provided for claim review are true, complete and correct. I hereby authorize third persons, including, without limitation: any financial institution, consumer reporting agency, insurance company or reinsurer, insurance service organization such as the Medical Information Bureau, benefit plan administrator, health plan, hospital, health care provider, pharmacy, laboratory, business associate, governmental entity (federal, state, or local), or any other organization or individual (collectively "Third Parties"); to disclose the minimum necessary personal, financial and health information, including physical, psychological, psychiatric, drug or substance use and communicable disease diagnosis or treatment information ("Personal Information") to US Able Life (the "Company"), its representatives or agents in connection with underwriting, claim evaluation or processing, medical or disability assessment and management, or treatment, payment, and operations related activities (the "Permitted Activities"). The Company may possess and further disclose Personal Information obtained from me, Third Parties, or developed by the Company to other Third Parties, claim or medical management organizations, investigative firms, agents, employees, consultants and others who have a legitimate business interest in obtaining the minimum necessary Personal Information in connection with the Permitted Activities. If any provision of this authorization is or becomes invalid or unenforceable pursuant to applicable Federal or State laws, it shall be ineffective only to the extent of such invalidity or unenforceability, and the remaining provisions of this authorization shall not be affected.

This authorization is valid for the lesser of: the period that my coverage from the Company remains in effect or; if this authorization is given in connection with the Company's consideration of a claim for benefits, for the duration of the Company's consideration of that claim. I have the right to revoke this authorization, in writing, at any time or to refuse to sign this authorization. I acknowledge that if I do so, that revocation may adversely affect the completion of the Permitted Activities, including the denial of a claim for benefits. Any written revocation of this authorization shall become effective upon receipt by the Company, but shall not apply retroactively as to Personal Information that has been previously disclosed, obtained or used in accordance with this authorization. A photocopy of this form is as valid as the original. A copy of this authorization will be provided to me or my authorized representative upon request.

I have executed this authorization intending that it will be effective on and after

(Date)

Signature

Printed Name

Return original with your claim & retain a copy of this authorization and claim form for your records.

For your protection, the laws of some states may require us to furnish you with the following notice:

Any person who knowingly presents a false or fraudulent claim for payment of a loss or benefit or knowingly presents false information in an application for insurance is guilty of a crime and may be subject to fines and confinement in prison. Please see below for special notices required by state law.

AK Residents Only: A person who knowingly and with intent to injure, defraud, or deceive an insurance company files a claim containing false, incomplete, or misleading information may be prosecuted under state law.

AL Residents Only: Any person who knowingly presents a false or fraudulent claim for payment of a loss or benefit or who knowingly presents false information in an application for insurance is guilty of a crime and may be subject to restitution fines or confinement in prison, or any combination thereof.

AZ Residents Only: Any person who knowingly presents a false or fraudulent claim for payment of a loss is subject to criminal and civil penalties.

CA Residents Only: Any person who knowingly presents a false or fraudulent claim for the payment of a loss is guilty of a crime and may be subject to fines and confinement in state prison.

CO Residents Only: It is unlawful to knowingly provide false, incomplete, or misleading facts or information to an insurance company for the purpose of defrauding or attempting to defraud the company. Penalties may include imprisonment, fines, denial of insurance and civil damages. Any insurance company or agent of an insurance company who knowingly provides false, incomplete, or misleading facts or information to a policyholder or claimant for the purpose of defrauding or attempting to defraud the policyholder or claimant with regard to a settlement or award payable from insurance proceeds shall be reported to the Colorado division of insurance within the department of regulatory agencies.

DE Residents Only: Any person who knowingly, and with intent to injure, defraud or deceive any insurer files a statement of claim containing any false, incomplete or misleading information is guilty of a felony.

DC Residents Only: It is a crime to provide false or misleading information to an insurer for the purpose of defrauding the insurer or any other person. Penalties include imprisonment and/or fines. In addition, an insurer may deny insurance benefits if false information materially related to a claim was provided by the applicant.

FL Residents Only: Any person who knowingly and with intent to injure, defraud or deceive any insurer files a statement of claim containing any false, incomplete, or misleading information is guilty of a felony of the third degree.

KS Residents Only: Any person who knowingly presents a false or fraudulent claim for payment of a loss or benefit or knowingly presents false information in an application for insurance may be guilty of a crime and subject to fines and confinement in prison as determined by a court of law.

KY Residents Only: Any person who knowingly and with intent to defraud any insurance company or other person files a statement of claim containing any materially false information or conceals, for the purpose of misleading, information concerning any fact material thereto commits a fraudulent insurance act, which is a crime.

MD Residents Only: Any person who knowingly or willfully presents a false or fraudulent claim for payment of a loss or benefit or who knowingly or willfully presents false information in an application for insurance is guilty of a crime and may be subject to fines and confinement in prison.

ME and WA Residents Only: It is a crime to knowingly provide false, incomplete or misleading information to an insurance company for the purpose of defrauding the company. Penalties include imprisonment, fines and denial of insurance benefits.

NH Residents Only: Any person who, with a purpose to injure, defraud, or deceive any insurance company, files a statement of claim containing any false, incomplete, or misleading information is subject to prosecution and punishment for insurance fraud, as provided in RSA 638:20.

NJ Residents Only: Any person who knowingly files a statement of claim containing any false or misleading information is subject to criminal and civil penalties.

OH Residents Only: Any person who, with the intent to defraud or knowing that he is facilitating a fraud against an insurer, submits an application or files a claim containing a false or deceptive statement is guilty of insurance fraud.

OR Residents Only: Any person who knowingly and with the intent to defraud an insurance company, files a claim containing false, incomplete or misleading information material to such claim, may be guilty of insurance fraud.

PA Residents Only: Any person who knowingly and with intent to defraud any insurance company or other person files an application for insurance or statement of claim containing any materially false information or conceals for the purpose of misleading, information concerning any fact material thereto commits a fraudulent insurance act, which is a crime and subjects such person to criminal and civil penalties.

TN Residents Only: It is or may be a crime to knowingly provide false, incomplete or misleading information to an insurance company for the purposes of defrauding the company or other person. Penalties may include imprisonment, fines, and a denial of insurance benefits in accordance with applicable state law.

VT Resident Only: Any person who knowingly presents a false statement in an application for insurance may be guilty of a criminal offense and subject to penalties under state law.

Date

Signature

